Our English school in London was founded in 2003 and we welcome adult learners (16 years +) from all around the world. In ELSE you can study among over 70 different nationalities - and we all communicate in the target language of English!

London is one of the most vibrant cities in England - and you can practise your English even when your English lessons are over for the day!

Our Summer Camp is available to over 16s and is a great opportunity to learn English in England and enjoy all the attractions of London.

For students aged between 12-16 please see our 'Young Learner Summer Camp' brochure.

Quality

ELSE English language courses in England
- quality guaranteed with British Council accreditation

East London School of English is accredited by the British Council and a member of English UK which is the best guarantee of quality and high English language teaching standards.

ELSE language courses allow students to develop all practical language skills in a multilingual environment and our Business English course provides a more specialised language course alternative for professionals who need to be well prepared to use English in their everyday business environment.
